My dear Dr. Jacobs,

Just now the question has come up of Miss Shaw's going to Amsterdam by way of London, as they very much wish that she shall take part in the Suffragette demonstration on June 13. In that case we would not reach Amsterdam until the morning of the 14th, and I wonder whether there would be any risk in that.

Mrs. Fawcett thinks not. I wonder whether it is morning afternoon or evening that Miss Shaw is to preach. Will you let us know about that please? She is very anxious to be at the London meeting for she has so much sympathy with the Suffra estes, and then they are going to have a banner for Aunt Susan and all of the people from the United States are expected to march under that. I am trying to change the date of our sailing—that is go on a faster boat and one which will take us right to London, but we may not be able to change the date—at least I am afraid that it will cost so much that we cannot afford it. I just thought that I would let you know of the possible change in plan although nothing is decided as yet. Mrs. Avery would still go on May 23 as we had expected for she has promised to help Mrs. Catt some a few days before the opening of the Alliance.

Miss Shaw is at present in the South and will not be home until the 8th of May. Is it not a shame that she has to be away from her new home this first Spring, and also the first Summer? I just know that we will be anti suffragists the next time so that we will not feel the responsibility of the suffrage work, and can stay home and make our gardens. But then as we must go away, I am glad indeed that it is to dear Holland that we go, and to our precious Dr. Jacobs in Holland. I do think it is so lovely of you to include me in the invitation to your home, and want to tell you again how much I appreciate it. Thank you so much.

Will you please let me know what is the binding of your set of The Life and Work of Aunt Susan. We want to bring to you a copy of the third volume which is just finished. Mrs. Harper has done so wonderfully in writing it, and we are so grateful to her. Soon she and Mrs. Catt will be in Amsterdam.

Affectionately,

Sincerely, [Signature]
