Dear R. Jr.:

Your note reached me and am so glad to be in touch. The Woman's Centennial Congress was a significant gathering - your friend C. C. C. was the queen of the occasion - wish you could have been there.

Your friend,

Your countrywoman has arrived safely from my old home in Europe. I hope to see her today.

If my companionate is still here, I am going to stay on that side of the river.

The stop has been successful, and I am glad to be busy. Do remember me to any friends you ask. I remember your letter dated Oct. 23rd.

P.S. - B. is here, and will say goodbye. Do write.
